

UPDATE 7-1-2020

In addition to offering the July Uniform Bar Examination, the Arizona Supreme Court has determined it will also offer an October remote bar examination on October 5th and 6th 2020. Applicants who applied for the July Uniform Bar Examination may elect to sit for that examination, the October remote examination or transfer their application to the February 2021 Uniform Bar Examination. If you have requested a refund or transferred your application to the February Uniform Bar Examination, you may also request to sit at the October remote examination. You may not sit for both the July Uniform Bar Examination and the October remote bar examination.

The Arizona July Uniform Bar Examination continues to be scheduled for July 28th and 29th.

Individuals who applied for the July Uniform Bar Examination remain registered for that exam unless they request to be transferred to the October remote examination. All requests to be transferred to the October remote examination must be received by the Attorney Admissions Unit on or before 5:00 p.m. July 10, 2020. If circumstances require the July Uniform Bar Examination to be cancelled, individuals registered to sit for the July Uniform Bar Exam will be allowed to register for the October remote examination or the February Uniform Bar Examination.

Each person who applied for the July Uniform Bar Examination will receive an email with instructions on how to transfer to the October remote examination if the individual elects to do so. Late requests to transfer will not be accepted.

In addition, if an individual did not apply for the July Uniform Bar Examination that individual may apply for the October remote bar examination. New applications to sit for the October remote examination will be accepted starting August 3, 2020 and must be received on or before 5:00 p.m. on August 7, 2020. Late applications will not be accepted. Additional information concerning how to submit an application will be posted in the future.

An individual electing to sit for the October remote examination will sit for the examination at their home or other site of the individual's choosing. The Committee on Examinations will have available a limited number of physical test sites for individuals who do not have an acceptable site to take the examination.

CAUTION -- The October remote examination is not a Uniform Bar Examination, an individual passing the exam receives an Arizona only credential, and therefore the score is not transferrable to other jurisdictions. It is also unclear whether in the future other jurisdictions will honor the remote examination in the event an individual elects to apply for admission on motion to that jurisdiction.

A person who takes the remote October exam may choose to take an UBE in person exam at a future date to secure an UBE transferable score.
